How the duck I got this game, it's not good.. Space Hit is a surprisingly fresh take on the shoot 'em up and an easy pick up for any fan of the genre.

Pros:

- novel shoot 'em up mechanic has you warping from planet to planet while fighting off baddies
- warping and shooting creates a very satisfying gameplay hook
- decent progression
- amateurish programmer art makes the game affordable and, perhaps, charming

Cons:

- at first blush, some of the visual assets come off as a bit amateur (less so if you're inclined to game jam or flash games)
- not super long
- some generic and repetitive enemy design
